II. DEPARTMENT-SANCTIONED USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA

Where the Easthampton Police Department uses social media to advance the purposes and goals of the organization, the following procedures shall apply to these officially-sanctioned uses:

A. GENERAL OPERATING PROCEDURES FOR DEPARTMENT-SANCTIONED USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA

1. Where possible, each social media page shall include an introductory statement that clearly specifies the purpose and scope of the Department's presence on the website.
2. When appropriate, the page(s) should link to the Department's official website.
3. Social media page(s) should be designed for the target audience(s).
4. All Department social media sites or pages shall be approved by the Chief of Police and shall be administered by the Departmental Public Information Section, or as otherwise determined.
5. Where possible, social media pages shall clearly indicate they are maintained by the Department and shall have Department contact information prominently displayed.
6. Social media content shall adhere to applicable laws, regulations, and policies, including all information technology and records management policies.
7. Content may be subject to public records laws. Relevant records retention schedules can apply to social media content.
8. Content must be managed, stored, and retrieved to comply with public records laws.
9. Where possible, social media pages should state that the opinions expressed by visitors to the page(s) do not reflect the opinions of the Department.

10. Pages shall clearly indicate that posted comments will be monitored and that the Department reserves the right to moderate those comments which violate the Department's Terms of Use Policy.
11. Pages shall clearly indicate that any content posted or submitted for posting is subject to public disclosure.

B. CONDUCT DURING DEPARTMENT-SANCTIONED USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA

When representing the Easthampton Police Department via social media outlets:

1. Employees shall conduct themselves at all times as representatives of the Department and, accordingly, shall adhere to all Department standards of conduct and observe conventionally accepted protocols and proper decorum.
2. Employees shall identify themselves as a member of the Department, unless law-enforcement purposes dictate otherwise.
3. Employees shall not make statements about the guilt or innocence of any suspect or arrestee, or comments concerning pending prosecutions, nor post, transmit, or otherwise disseminate confidential information, including photographs or videos, related to Department training, activities, or work-related assignments without express permission from the Chief.
4. Employees shall not conduct political activities or private business on Department sanctioned platforms.
5. Department personnel use of personally owned devices to manage the Department's social media activities or in the course of official duties is prohibited without express permission from the Chief.
6. Employees shall observe and abide by all copyright, trademark, and service mark restrictions in posting materials to electronic media.

C. RECOGNIZED USES FOR A DEPARTMENT-SANCTIONED SOCIAL MEDIA PRESENCE

1. Social media is a valuable investigative tool when seeking evidence or information about:
  - Missing persons
  - Wanted persons
  - Gang participation
  - Crimes perpetrated online (i.e., cyberbullying, cyberstalking)

- Photos or videos of a crime posted by a participant or observer
2. Social media can be used for community outreach and engagement by:
    - Providing crime prevention tips
    - Offering online reporting opportunities
    - Sharing crime maps and data
    - Soliciting tips about unsolved crimes
  3. Social media can be used to make time-sensitive notifications related to:
    - Road closures
    - Special events
    - Weather emergencies
    - Missing or endangered persons

D. USE DURING EMPLOYMENT SCREENING

1. Persons seeking employment and volunteer positions use the internet to search for opportunities, and social media can be a valuable recruitment mechanism. This Department has an obligation to include internet-based content when conducting background investigations of job candidates.
2. Searches should be conducted by a non-decision maker. Information pertaining to protected classes shall be filtered out prior to sharing any information found online with decision makers.
3. Persons authorized to search Internet-based content should be deemed as holding a sensitive position.
4. Search methods shall not involve techniques that are a violation of existing law.
5. Vetting techniques shall be applied uniformly to all candidates.
6. Every effort must be made to validate internet-based information considered during the hiring process.

Barring state law or binding employment contracts to the contrary, Department personnel shall abide by the following when using social media:

- A. Department personnel are free to express themselves as private citizens speaking on matters of public concern on social media sites to the degree that their interests in engaging in such speech is not outweighed by the Department's interests against impairing the maintenance of discipline by supervisors, impairing working relationships of this Department for which loyalty and confidentiality are important, impeding the performance of duties, impairing discipline and harmony among coworkers, interfering with the operation of the Department, undermining the mission of the Department, conflicting with the responsibilities of the personnel, or abusing one's authority or public accountability. The instances must be judged on a case-by-case basis.
- B. As public employees, Department personnel are cautioned that speech on- or off-duty, made pursuant to their official duties is not protected speech under the First Amendment and may form the basis for discipline if deemed detrimental to the Department.
- C. For safety and security reasons, Department personnel should be cautious where they disclose their employment with this Department, for example:
- Displaying Department logos, or similar identifying items on personal web pages.
  - Posting personal photographs, or providing similar means of personal recognition, that may cause them, or another officer, to be identified as a police officer of this Department. Officers who are, or who may reasonably be expected to work in undercover operations, should be cautious about posting any form of visual or personal identification.
  - Posting, transmitting and/or disseminating any photographs, video or audio recordings, likenesses or images of department logos, emblems, uniforms, badges, patches, marked or unmarked vehicles, equipment, or other material that specifically identifies the Department on any personal or social networking platform, website or web page.
- D. When using social media, Department personnel should be mindful that their speech becomes part of the worldwide electronic domain. Therefore, adherence to the Department's Code of Conduct is required in the personal use of social media.
- E. Department personnel may not make any statements, speeches, appearances or endorsements, publish materials, or participate in any public or private events, functions, ceremonies or parades that could reasonably be considered to represent the Department and/or the views or positions of this Department without express permission from the Chief.

- F. Department personnel should be aware that they may be subject to civil litigation for:
- Publishing or posting false information that harms the reputation of another person, group, or organization (defamation).
  - Publishing or posting private facts and personal information about someone without their permission that has not been previously revealed to the public, is not of legitimate public concern, and would be offensive to a reasonable person.
  - Using someone else's real name, likeness, or other personal attributes without that person's permission for an exploitative purpose.
  - Publishing the creative work of another, trademarks, or certain confidential business information without the permission of the owner.
- G. Employees should be aware that there is no reasonable expectation of privacy when engaging in social networking online. As such, the content of social networking websites may be obtained for use in criminal trials, civil proceedings, and departmental investigations. Such content may have a detrimental impact on criminal investigations or judicial proceedings.
- H. Department personnel should be aware that privacy settings and social media sites are constantly in flux, and they should never assume that personal information posted on such sites is protected.
- I. Department personnel should expect that any information created, transmitted, downloaded, exchanged, or discussed in a public online forum may be accessed by the Department at any time without prior notice.
- J. Reporting violations - Any employee becoming aware of or having knowledge of a posting or of any website or web page in violation of the provision of this policy shall notify his or her supervisor immediately for follow-up action.
- K. Employees having personal web pages, social media or other types of internet postings which can be accessed by the public, shall not place, or allow to be placed, photographs or depictions of themselves dressed in any uniform and/or displaying official identification, patches or badges, or in any way, either directly or indirectly, identifying themselves as an employee of the department in an irresponsible, unprofessional, unethical, and/or unlawful manner.

- L. Employees having personal web pages or social media shall not use their rank, title, or position in a manner that would suggest that they are representing the interests or official position of the police department.
- M. Photographs of the inside of the police building as well as any crime or accident scene shall not be posted without consent of the Chief.
- N. When engaging in the personal use of social media, employees shall not post any photograph, audio, video, illustration, or any other multimedia file related to or depicting any of the following:
  - Brandishing any Department-owned weaponry, actual or simulated, or any contraband whether actual or simulated.
  - Brandishing any Department-owned tactical instrument, including, but not limited to: firearms, ASP, baton, OC spray, electrical control weapon, and/or mechanical restraints.

O. APPROVAL PROCESS

1. Personnel seeking approval(s) as outlined in this policy shall submit a request for approval to the Chief of Police, via the chain of command.
2. Personnel who post photos, comments, or other material pertaining to other department personnel must inform and seek approval from the personnel before posting same.
